Personalised stock exchange information site – thanks to white labeling.

Our white-label website has all the modules a modern stock exchange information site needs. What is more, they can be freely selected and combined. Various pages of the website can be tailored to suit the user's preferences, making this solution highly flexible and customer friendly. Financial institutions can easily adapt the design in line with their corporate identity, so that specific modules can be readily incorporated into existing websites.

Key Features:

- Customisable pages for the end user.
- Based on state-of-the-art Web technology.
- Wide range of stock exchange information and news.
- World map with various indices.
- Multi-dimensional charts linked to securities and news.
- Automatic updates of price data.
- Portfolios and watchlists.

Key Benefits:

- White labeled; can be quickly tailored to customer needs.
- Tried-and-tested, mature and stable basic modules.
- Rapid implementation and change cycles.
- Seamless integration in line with customer's corporate identity.
- Scalable – can handle very high traffic volumes.
